

LONGINES IRISH CHAMPIONS WEEKEND

LIVE ON

AT THE RACES

12TH & 13TH SEPTEMBER 2015

LEOPARDSTOWN

THE Curragh
RACECOURSE

After the huge success of last year's inaugural Irish Champions Weekend, September sees the return of the ultimate Irish racing fixture.

Last year's meeting was a huge success, attracting over 24,000 spectators over both days. This year's event promises to be even better, with over €4million in prize money up for grabs.

Watch the action unfold at Leopardstown on Saturday 12th September and the Curragh on Sunday 13th September. Over the course of the weekend, 10 Group races will be run, including five Group 1 contests, attracting some of the leading horses in Europe.

The feature race on the first day at Leopardstown is the QIPCO Irish Champion Stakes where dual Guineas winner, Gleneagles is a potential runner up in trip, along with Royal Ascot hero Free Eagle. The feature race the following day from the Curragh is the Palmerstown House Estate Irish St Leger, won last year by high class stayer Brown Panther, sparking wild celebrations in the winners' enclosure. It was another triumph for a British raider, paying further testament to the ability of the meeting to attract top-class runners from the other side of the Irish Sea.

THAT'S NOT ALL...

Aside from the racing action, fans of the sport also get the opportunity to get up close and personal with some stars of the training and breeding world on the unique Curragh Thoroughbred Trail. Last year, this included trips to the world famous Irish National Stud plus guided tours at the yards of Johnny Murtagh, John Oxx and many more. The Goffs Champions Sale before racing at Leopardstown also gives racegoers the chance to see real money changing hands as a number of talented thoroughbreds go under the hammer. The sales topper in 2014 was Timiyan, bought for €470,000.
