ATR VERDICT: DR RICHARD KIMBLE outran his odds when third at Beverley, seemingly relishing the fast ground, and similar conditions can see the three-year-old land the spoils for his in-form team. A mark of 71 looks to be within his reach, and he can account for Spice War, who put up a career best on his handicap debut and has William Buick on board this time. Seaborough remains on a nice rating if his recent Chelmsford second is anything to go by.

Top Tip: DR RICHARD KIMBLE (1)
Watch out for: SPICE WAR (10)
