ATR VERDICT: BEATBOXER was a $650,000 purchase at the Keeneland Yearlings Sale last autumn and went some way to justifying the price tag when winning on debut at Sandown over 7f. The way he stayed on up the hill suggested a mile would be no issue to the son of Scat Daddy and, although he concedes 6lb to all his rivals, the manner of that success indicated he could prove to be a very smart individual. Kadar comes from the family of Kalanisi and cost 700,000 euros at the Arqana Breeze-Up in May and represents Karl Burke, who has done well with his juveniles this season, while Summer Moon chased home an experienced rival at Doncaster and can take a step forward.

Top Tip: BEATBOXER (1)
Watch out for: KADAR (4)
