ATR VERDICT: KNOCK A HAND hasn't put a foot wrong in three starts over hurdles thus far and can continue the winning sequence on this handicap debut. He loves testing conditions, galloping tracks and showed when readily brushing aside a useful sort at Haydock last time than he can shoulder plenty of weight. Mountainous is another progressive sort who has obvious claims representing the course owner, while Radetsky March, a cosy C&D winner latest, isn't out of it either.

Top Tip: KNOCK A HAND

Watch out for: MOUNTAINOUS
