Top Tip: THE TRACEY SHUFFLE
Watch out for: ONE LUCKY LADY

ATR VERDICT: KNOCK A HAND hasn't put a foot wrong in three starts over hurdles thus far and can continue the winning sequence on this handicap debut. He loves testing conditions, galloping tracks and showed when readily brushing aside a useful sort at Haydock last time than he can shoulder plenty of weight. Mountainous is another progressive sort who has obvious claims representing the course owner, while Radetsky March, a cosy C&D winner latest, isn't out of it either.

Top Tip: KNOCK A HAND

Watch out for: MOUNTAINOUS

ATR VERDICT: It's impossible to look past OSCAR WHISKY, who barely had to come off the bridle to win this contest last year. After suffering a last-flight fall on his seasonal reappearance at Ascot in November, he has bounced back with two comfortable victories around Cheltenham and is favourably treated at these weights. Starluck looks most likely to take second spot on this first start for David Arbuthnot, while it's never easy to write off the enigmatic Ashkazar, who is more than capable on his day.

Top Tip: OSCAR WHISKY
Watch out for: STARLUCK

Long Handicap: Incentivise 9 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Rey Nacarado has yet to finish out of the frame in seven starts over fences and the last-time-out Newbury scorer seems sure to go close once again, but hat-trick seeker MOHAYER edges the vote. After a gritty Market Rasen success, he showed his love for bottomless ground when hacking up over an extended 3m1f here last time and could well strike again despite a further 9lb rise in the ratings. Jaunty Journey has each-way claims competing from the foot of the weights.

Top Tip: MOHAYER

Watch out for: REY NACARADO

ATR VERDICT: TEAFORTHREE had impressed when making all the running in similarly testing ground at Chepstow two starts ago before being set a stiff assignment in the Grade 1 Feltham Chase at Kempton and, with conditions back in his favour this afternoon, he could prove difficult to beat under the champion. The only worry is if he and Viking Blond take each other on for the lead. Then, the door could be left open for Charlie Mann's Maringo Bay.

Top Tip: TEAFORTHREE

Watch out for: MARINGO BAY

ATR VERDICT: MILARROW appears to have been found a great opportunity to open his account. His two recent placed efforts are highly encouraging and a repeat of either performance could see him first past the post. Super Villan was far from disgraced when sixth on his return at Ascot in December and, entitled to strip fitter for that, he ought to figure prominently. Captain Moonman can't be ruled out representing last year's winning stable.

Top Tip: MILARROW

Watch out for: SUPER VILLAN

ATR VERDICT: Mister Newby showed a liking for soft ground when winning his bumper at Plumpton in December and that will stand him in good stead this afternoon but, in receipt of 7lb, ACCORDING TO TREV could have his measure. This son of Accordion was bought for 30,000 pounds after winning a point-to-point at Tinahely in October and his ability to stay further will certainly help in these testing conditions. Ubuque showed plenty on debut here and is no forlorn hope.
