Long Handicap: My Jeanie 8 - 6, Graceful Spirit 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: MONADREEN DANCER stayed on well to take second behind the reopposing Crocodile Bay over this C&D 10 days ago and the third that day has since franked the form with a subsequent success. The filly has been put up 2lb in the weights but she looks up to reversing the form with the winner, who has since struggled to make an impression at Southwell. Lightly-raced five-year-old Graceful Spirit hasn't been sighted since the summer but showed on a couple of occasions that she is not a lost cause and market support would bring her into the equation.

Top Tip: MONADREEN DANCER
Watch out for: GRACEFUL SPIRIT

ATR VERDICT: TWINKLED comes out best on the adjusted figures and although last of 10 at Beverley when last sighted in October, the gelding had previously gone close at Wolverhampton and he also has a course victory to his name. This looks a realistic opportunity for him to bounce back after the layoff. Marvo and Lutine Charlie are the obvious form picks on recent evidence, with the former of considerable interest following a head defeat to Spinning Ridge at Wolverhampton.

Top Tip: TWINKLED

ATR VERDICT: WAABEL has dropped a full stone in the ratings since his latest victory over this C&D 12 months ago and last month's third left the impression he was on the verge of a return to winning ways. Sent off favourite, he missed a beat at the start but still managed to be placed and the low draw may help him get it right from the outset this afternoon. Captainrisk was only a place behind the selection in fourth and considering that was only his second run since a break, combined with the fact his rider dropped the whip close home, a big run is anticipated today. Waterloo Dock and Captain Dimitrios look the pick of the others.

Top Tip: WAABEL
Watch out for: CAPTAINRISK

ATR VERDICT: CHJIMES has gone up just 3lb for scoring over the track and trip last week and is taken to go in again with Hayley Turner keeping the mount. She gave the eight-year-old a well-timed ride on that occasion and back-to-back victories could be on the cards. It would be dangerous to rule out Slatey Hen, who gets in under a low weight and would appear to have plenty more to offer. Elsewhere, Court Applause must also be considered a threat.

Top Tip: CHJIMES
Watch out for: SLATEY HEN

ATR VERDICT: The highlight of a competitive card can go the way of PRINCE OF BURMA. Jeremy Gask is beginning to get a real tune out of his Mujadil colt, who bids to land a hat-trick off this 7lb higher mark. Being drawn so wide (stall 10) isn't ideal and he steps in class but he's clearly benefitted for the fitting of blinkers and is tough to oppose in this sort of form. Elsewhere, Lockantanks appeared within the grip of the handicapper last time but was only beaten a length behind the useful Mull Of Killough, while Titan Triumph is another that has threatened a win and must be taken seriously.

Top Tip: PRINCE OF BURMA
Watch out for: LOCKANTANKS

Long Handicap: First Avenue 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: ART SCHOLAR has thrived since being stepped up to 1m4f and the son of Pyrus can continue on an upward curve this afternoon. Michael Appleby's gelding must defy a 6lb rise in the ratings for his winning exploits at Kempton last time but continues to show a consistent level of form and the extra weight may not be enough to halt him. Exemplary is another in-form contender who is certain to stay and should be shortlisted, along with First Avenue.

ATR VERDICT: FALCON'S REIGN is expected to be all the rage following a promising debut behind Jamie Osborne's Roedean at Wolverhampton. The winner has since gone on to record the hat-trick, albeit in selling company, and this has boosted the form of what looked a promising performance first time out. David Simcock's Palmyra is expected to show most resistance, while Search And Rescue returns fresh from a break.

ATR VERDICT: Jeremy Nosedá's well-bred newcomer Roxelana warrants the utmost respect on her racecourse debut under Hayley Turner but preference is for the relatively experienced BURNHOPE. Once again, the form line behind Roedean will be put to the test and a win for Nosedá's Falcon's Reign earlier on today's card will also boost his claims. Infortual represents Marco Botti on her debut and is another expected to make the frame.
