ATR VERDICT: MONSIEUR PONTAVEN rattled the crossbar over C&D last month, going down by less than a length off 1lb lower, and gets the vote here in hope he can build upon that effort from his low draw. Look For Love was another to go close over this track and trip latest and, off the same mark, appears the principal threat. Blue Noodles was putting in his best work in the finish over 6f last time and merits consideration over this longer trip along with top-weight Gala Spirit and Kyncraighe, for whom the booking of Jamie Spencer for the Joseph Tuite yard looks significant.

Top Tip: MONSIEUR PONTAVEN
Watch out for: LOOK FOR LOVE

ATR VERDICT: An open-looking contest in which NORVILLE is taken to come out on top. David Evans' gelding progressed at the rate of knots in the first half of last year, after which time the assessor appeared to have his measure. However, having now dropped 2lb lower than his last winning mark, the selection is taken to deliver on a promising Lingfield fourth last time, stepped up to a trip over which he is unexposed. Back in fifth in the same race, Piscean is down to a good mark and merits consideration along with Oil Strike, who could improve on his first run for Mick Easterby.

Top Tip: NORVILLE
Watch out for: OIL STRIKE

ATR VERDICT: The Lock Master looks a winner in waiting but his best efforts in recent months have come on the slower Fibresand at Southwell. Preference is therefore for AQUARIAN SPIRIT, who rattled off a quick 1m double at Lingfield in January and, raised only 2lb for his last-time-out neck success, is expected to improve over this longer trip. Archie Rice bids for a remarkable fifth consecutive victory when running at this venue and cannot be left out of calculations, nor can the unexposed Son Vida, who warrants a market check on his return from a prolonged absence.

Top Tip: AQUARIAN SPIRIT
Watch out for: THE LOCK MASTER

ATR VERDICT: Maison Brillet hinted his turn was near when beaten by just a nose over 2m at Lingfield last time and another bold bid looks assured, despite a 3lb rise in the weights. Preference, however, is for MOUNT ABORA, who wasn't helped by the moderate pace when third here last week and remains on a fair mark, 5lb higher than when winning over 1m4f last month. The selection does, however, need to prove his stamina for the trip. If he fails to stay, C&D winner Mr Plod could feasibly figure in the shake-up.

Top Tip: MOUNT ABORA
Watch out for: MAISON BRILLET

ATR VERDICT: LA ESTRELLA's (nap) current record in claiming company stands at 11 wins from 12 attempts and, impressive over an extended 1m5f here latest, he looks set to deliver the goods again. Country Road has five lengths to make up with the selection on that running and, although unlikely to do so, Jake Duern's 7lb claim could help him close the gap, while Halla San matches the selection on official ratings and would have definite claims if recapturing some of his old sparkle.

Top Tip: LA ESTRELLA

ATR VERDICT: PLACE THAT FACE has edged closer to the target in each of her three starts thus far and could make it fourth time lucky. Performing Pocket displayed a fair level of ability in his two maiden appearances before struggling in a conditions event at Newbury last time and can bounce back to form here, while Elavssom is likely to benefit from dropping back three furlongs in trip and could surprise a few if taking to this all-weather surface.

ATR VERDICT: Excuse Me is worthy of consideration on his handicap bow, while Beetuna makes plenty of appeal after returning to form in the first-time cheekpieces (worn again today) over C&D last time. The vote, however, goes to MCCOOL BANNANAS. He arguably produced a career best performance when beaten half-a-length into second here on Monday and looks sure to play a leading role off the same mark today.

Top Tip: MCCOOL BANNANAS
