ATR VERDICT: Rory O'Moore finished a well-held fifth behind a couple of Supreme Novices' Hurdle contenders (Trifolium and Simenon) at Punchestown earlier in the month and is afforded plenty of respect now pitched back into a bumper. However, there was much to like about THE PAPARRAZI KID's winning debut at Navan earlier in the month, when travelling supremely well and putting the race to bed with ease, and he shades the vote with the likelihood of more improvement to come under the care of Willie Mullins. Too Scoops is going the right way judging by his latest victory at Fairyhouse and makes more appeal than newcomer Will Dobbin.

Top Tip: THE PAPARRAZI KID

Watch out for: RORY O'MOORE
