ATR VERDICT: Stopped Out and Araucaria both continue to run well without winning, while Quel Ballistic appears to be having problems in the jumping department. The vote, therefore, goes to Evan Williams' Welsh raider BRUSLINI. He has run well in each of his three hurdle starts this term and is sure to have been well schooled prior to today's chasing debut. Western Bound won a couple of hurdle prizes at Perth last summer and, despite being the outsider here, he's no forlorn hope.

Top Tip: BRUSLINI
Watch out for: STOPPED OUT
