Long Handicap: A Hit Is A Hit 9 - 10

ATR VERDICT: While slight question marks remains over Sir Harry Ormesher's ability to see out 3m, Alan King's yard couldn't be in better form and his spin behind the World Hurdle-bound Oscar Whiskey in a "jumpers' bumper" at Kempton last month will have done him the world of good. Preference, however, is for CORKAGE, who has gone up 3lb for a gallant effort over the C&D last month. He appeared to thrive when stepped up in trip that day and Keith Reveley's charge remains weighted to win races, despite a 3lb rise. Catterick winner Allow Me is another interesting contender.

Top Tip: CORKAGE
Watch out for: ALLOW ME
