ATR VERDICT: Devote Myself has displayed fair form in three starts so far and ought to go well again with similar sentiments applying to Wolverhampton runner-up Hikma. The latter represents the in-form Mark Johnston stable so seems sure to prove popular while an improved effort from Morilles would not surprise. However, despite showing tell tale signs of inexperience, BARBARELLA BLUE made a debut full of promise when third at Kempton in January and given the level of market confidence behind her chance on that occasion, she might be one to keep faith with.

Top Tip: BARBARELLA BLUE
Watch out for: HIKMA
