ATR VERDICT: Gordon Elliott holds a strong hand in the opener courtesy of Narjawa and TIME TO WORK. The latter was decent on the level and made a very pleasing start to his hurdling career when third behind the useful Bat Masterton, who has subsequently gone very close in a Grade 2. There was plenty to like about the way he stayed on that day and he makes more appeal than his stablemate, who should have learnt a lot from his disappointing first hurdle outing at Ayr. Mazagee was no slouch on the Flat for David Lanigan and warrants the utmost respect on her NH bow for Charles Byrnes, especially if the market speaks in her favour.

Top Tip: TIME TO WORK
Watch out for: MAZAGEE
