ATR VERDICT: Warren Greatrex is a shrewd placer of stable inmates and this rates a solid opportunity for MISSED APPROACH to maintain his unbeaten record and complete a hat-trick under Rules. He impressed when scoring at Ffos Las on similar ground and should have no problem with the additional quarter-mile here. Tomorrow's Legend has shown promise on both hurdle starts but it would come as no surprise to see ex-pointer Three Musketeers emerge as the prime threat for the impressive Skelton operation.

ATR VERDICT: This look trappy and punters will hope all eight stand their ground for each-way purposes. SAINTS AND SINNERS confirmed chasing will be his game with a decisive Doncaster success last month and should not be overly inconvenienced by a 7lb rise for that victory. He is just afforded the nod over hat-trick seeking Redpender, who has found his form with a vengeance the last twice and must be kept on the right side of. Like Minded and Ueuetootl are next best.

ATR VERDICT: Guiding George is respected, especially with Dan Skelton choosing to revert to the smaller obstacles after a chasing success at Doncaster. However, he has plenty on here off topweight and LOCK TOWERS, representing the in-form Pauling yard, is a speculative alternative. He's taken time to get the hang of things but can reward the patience of Ben Pauling and land a first success under Rules. Sue Smith is back in form now so expect a solid effort from Friendly Royal too.

ATR VERDICT: Cases can be advanced for all five but WILDE PASTURES is taken to follow up his late-October win at Ayr in the hope that he'll be allowed a soft lead and thus be able to dictate his own pace. He'll handle the ground and goes well for his conditional pilot. Stable companion Sa Suffit has definite claims at his best but has a major absence to overcome so Stagecoach Pearl rates the prime danger despite being dropped dramatically in trip.

ATR VERDICT: Fisher scored snugly at Ayr last month and is expected to go well off a 6lb higher mark, especially as Dean Pratt's useful claim offsets that rise. He remains open to plenty of improvement at the age of five but the year-younger RAVEN'S TOWER is preferred. He progressed nicely enough last term and will find this far more straightforward after the Greatwood Hurdle proved all too much last time. Lightning Rod impressed here when last seen and merits shortlist inclusion.

Long Handicap: Brokethegate 10 - 0

ATR VERDICT: MANY STARS is another decent shout for the Skeltons with his latest Doncaster third behind Tales Of Milan representing the best recent form, although a 3lb rise for that run seems somewhat harsh. He stays the trip and handled the forecast ground in the pointing arena. After just three starts over fences, he should retain plenty of scope for further progress. Lightly-raced Jimmy Shan is an interesting Irish import for Tim Vaughan but Brokethegate could be a bigger danger if forgiven his lifeless effort on his reappearance.

ATR VERDICT: Avenue Of Honour scored nicely enough on his Huntingdon debut but concedes 7lb to a field containing potentially interesting sorts, whilst this looks tougher than the race Colour Of The Wind narrowly landed at Towcester. Emrys is probably better than his first run when the subject of strong support but we'll take a chance on newcomer ZANDINO for a yard that has become one to note carefully in this sphere. Irish raider Bamako Du Chatelet obviously requires a market check.

Top Tip: ZANDINO
