Long Handicap: Rock Charm 8 - 6, It's Only Business 8 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Dark Ocean won last year's renewal off 4lb lower and it is interesting that Jedd O'Keeffe, who enjoyed a double on the card 12 months ago, has again secured the services of Graham Lee. He's expected to go well on his return, while similar sentiments apply to the hat-trick-seeking Trinity Star, but the verdict goes to the race-fit MARCIANO, as he has been kept busy on the all-weather at Southwell and won a competitive handicap there in February by five lengths.

Top Tip: MARCIANO

Watch out for: DARK OCEAN

ATR VERDICT: Both DANNYDAY and Ya Hade Ye Delil hold entries in the Derby and the former is expected to have improved plenty from two to three. Representing the Sir Michael Stoute yard, one of just two horses for the former champion trainer at this meeting, the son of Dansili wasn't beaten far by subsequent Group 3 Autumn Stakes winner Commemorative on his Doncaster debut last September. The 79-rated Secateur represents another powerful stable, but Richard Hannon's Ya Hade Ye Delil is feared most on the back of his recent Kempton effort.

ATR VERDICT: Danot is interesting on his debut for the Jedd O'Keeffe, the same stable that won the race 12 months ago with New Bidder, and he boasts a plum draw in stall one. Teruntum Star is the class horse in the race and is dropped back into handicap company on his seasonal bow, but GRANDAD'S WORLD was deemed good enough to contest a hot sales race at Doncaster as a juvenile and the course winner ran a blinder to finish a close-up seventh behind stable companion Bond's Girl. He's taken to overcome a potentially tricky draw in stall eight.

Top Tip: GRANDAD'S WORLD

Long Handicap: Stickleback 8 - 4

ATR VERDICT: SUPRISE VENDOR hasn't been seen in this sphere since winning this race at odds of 20-1 last year, but he has been kept busy over hurdles and another bold showing looks assured. The nine-year-old made all the running from 7lb out of the handicap 12 months ago, seeing off the late challenge of Fitzwilly and Calculated Risk, and off just a 5lb higher mark he's expected to go close again. Scrafton is relatively unexposed and must be taken seriously judged on wins at Newcastle and Catterick last September, while Harvey's Hope rates best of the rest.

Top Tip: SUPRISE VENDOR

ATR VERDICT: Gothic was successful at Leicester when last tried over 1m2f in August last year and must enter calculations for powerful connections. Maven knows her way around here and was second to subsequent November Handicap winner Open Eagle at Redcar on her latest outing, but GOODWOOD MIRAGE has been contesting hot handicaps over hurdles this year and has winning form over this trip at Goodwood. He brings a touch of class to proceedings and can reward punters on his return to the Flat.

ATR VERDICT: Just 1lb separates BONDS CHOICE, Rock Follies and Tohfa on official ratings but the former represents the in-form Richard Fahey stable and is given what can only be described as a tentative vote. Deemed good enough to contest three York maidens as a juvenile, the daughter of Monsieur Bond improved for each visit to the track and got within a length and a quarter of the 93-rated Pallister on her final start on the Knavesmire in June. Richard Hannon's Tohfa finished a good third in a Newmarket maiden last time out and she is feared most.

ATR VERDICT: Sellingallthetime was well punted at Southwell last week but will have to improve on a disappointing effort on the Fibresand. Yul Finegold must come into the reckoning after his latest Chelmsford success and with an eye-catching jockey booking, but WHERE'S TIGER left a lasting impression when finishing runner-up at Doncaster on his seasonal bow and this stiffer 1m2f trip is expected to be right up his street.

Top Tip: WHERE'S TIGER
