ATR VERDICT: KNOW hinted that her winning turn was due when producing her best performance to date at Naas recently. She is backed to build on that third with success here, but does face some stiff opposition from the likes of Dr Doro, who has only found one rival too good in recent outings. Kildeery Pier trailed the second-named horse at Tipperary in July but meets that rival on much more favourable terms here, and the speedy Touch Of Frost might do better back over the minimum trip.

Top Tip: KNOW

Watch out for: DR DORO
