ATR VERDICT: Derby entrant Tyrannical should be monitored in the betting ring, while Rock Warbler is another interesting newcomer for a leading yard. Dark Devil made a pleasing introduction when busting up Arcanada at Chester (third a subsequent winner) and should be on the premises, but a chance is taken on BEAST MODE. Peter Chapple-Hyam's youngster displayed inexperience when only finishing in mid-division on debut at Newmarket but the form of that race has been working out reasonably well and the Cape Cross colt is expected to progress. Silver Streak, rather disappointing at Beverley latest, is another to consider.

ATR VERDICT: This might be between Luath and MARCEL. The former appeared in need of further when staying on into a never-threatening third on debut at Hamilton over 6f recently. Marginal preference, however, is for Marcel, who showed up well for a long way on his racecourse bow at Ascot last month and is entitled to improve for those exertions. St Andrews, representing a powerful northern yard, appeals most of the newcomers.

Top Tip: MARCEL

ATR VERDICT: Old stager The Osteopath recorded his second win of the season when obliging in plating company at Redcar. That appears his level nowadays and he is likely to be there or thereabouts again with the drop in distance not expected to be an inconvenience. Preference, however, is for another veteran in DAY OF THE EAGLE, a course winner back in 2013. Mick Easterby's gelding had been holding his form well before losing his chance when hampered in handicap company at Ripon. The drop in class is expected to work the oracle. I'm Super Too And Gabriel The Thug are others to note in an open race.

ATR VERDICT: An interesting little contest can go the way of SIMPLE ATTACK. The Godolphin colt got off the mark at the second time of asking over 7f here earlier this month in a manner that suggested this extra furlong would not be a hindrance, and there looks further gains to be made with the son of Invincible Spirit. Frankie Dettori makes the journey north to partner Derby entrant Shahbar and the Sandown winner has to be respected, while last-time-out Ripon scorer King's Pavilion is another to warrant inclusion on the shortlist.

ATR VERDICT: EDGE OF LOVE sprung a surprise when upsetting a hotpot in a three-runner Thirsk maiden last time out. It is hard to accurately gauge that form but an opening figure of 75 appears to offer possibilities and the Newmarket raider is taken to follow up that success. Ayr specialist Royal Duchess, third at Thirsk last week, is holding her form well despite edging up the handicap and is expected to give another good account, but the chief danger may come in the shape of the veteran Who's Shirl, who took advantage of a sliding mark when returning to winning ways at Doncaster.

ATR VERDICT: WOR LASS looks hard to oppose after readily landing a five-timer at Musselburgh last week. Two of those five successes came at this circuit and a 6lb penalty is not expected to halt the thriving mare. Hat-trick seeker Braes Of Lochalsh appears to be on the upgrade and rates an obvious danger, while Jan Smuts is admirably consistent but tends to find at least one too good and might have to be content with a supporting role once again.

ATR VERDICT: This looks a good opportunity for STAGS LEAP to supplement two hurdling successes at Cartmel this year now returned to the level. Paul Mulrennan's mount has actually scored on his last three outings over timber, he appears to be thriving at present, and a Flat rating of 54 is there to be exploited. Spirit Of The Sea has been running well through the summer and should not be left out of calculations, while leading northern pilot Graham Lee is booked for Peter Chapple-Hyam's handicap debutant Sociopath and he is worth a check in the market.

ATR VERDICT: Exotic Guest is thriving at present having justified cramped odds to score over course and distance latest, and a 5lb hike is not certain to prevent him gaining his third success of the season. Last-time-out course winner Second Cut rates an obvious danger for a yard that keeps eking out improvement in horses, but a chance is taken on MONEL. Jim Goldie's charge seems to keep his best for Ayr but he did run well here last week when staying on into fourth after a tardy start and he appears poised to strike over the coming weeks.

Top Tip: MONEL
