ATR VERDICT: WESTERN MILLER has rattled the crossbar in both of his bumper outings but, on the evidence of his Worcester run, he ought to relish this sort of test now going hurdling and he can make the breakthrough at the third attempt. The obvious danger is Classic Palace, who was short of her best at Cartmel last time but her earlier form entitles her to maximum respect. Tickenwolf is also noted, while it will be interesting to see what the market makes of Jonniesofa on his Rules bow.

Top Tip: WESTERN MILLER
Watch out for: CLASSIC PALACE

ATR VERDICT: THE GREY TAYLOR had plenty of strong form over timber last season and shaped as though the drop back to this trip would suit when fourth over 2m4f on his chasing debut at Wetherby last time. He rates a confident selection here, though Silk Hall has been in good heart of late and won't go down without a fight. Vayland's runner-up effort at Sedgefield earns him a place on the shortlist, but Alto Des Mottes will likely find the step back to two miles too sharp.

Top Tip: THE GREY TAYLOR

ATR VERDICT: HADFIELD found life too tough when tasked with conceding 14lb to a useful filly at Perth last time, but he wasn't helped by a blunder at the second last as he was delivering his challenge. He still pulled clear of the remainder, and can take full advantage of his three-year-old allowance here. Shear Rock is in red-hot form at present, and he isn't opposed lightly. Quick Brew is another who arrives in excellent heart and is worth considering, along with Bigindie.

ATR VERDICT: Richard Johnson has presumably passed over the chance to ride Charlie Longsdon's Orange Nassau in favour of the hat-trick seeking COURTOWN OSCAR. The six-year-old hasn't been seen since scoring cosily at Uttoxeter in May, but he hinted on that occasion that the return to this sort of trip would suit him down to the ground. Orange Nassau is the chief threat nonetheless, while Presented and King Fontaine have place claims.

Top Tip: COURTOWN OSCAR

ATR VERDICT: It's hard to escape the claims of AMUSE ME, who bolted up at Sedgefield 10 days ago and is 6lb well-in here under his penalty. He can strike again at the chief expense of Egmont, who has been knocking on the door in recent months and receives a handy three-year-old allowance. Slipper Satin has been running with credit on the Flat since scoring easily over timber at Cartmel in July and she commands respect, while Pied Du Roi and The Cobbler Swayne are also worth noting.

Top Tip: AMUSE ME
Watch out for: EGMONT

Long Handicap: Longueville Flier 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: BENNY'S WELL hasn't been seen since finishing a good second over the extended 3m2f at Sedgefield in April, but he goes well at this venue and is only 1lb above his last winning mark. The drop back to this trip is no issue and he is preferred to Solway Legend, who appeared to be in the process of delivering a potent challenge at Hexham when coming down at the final fence. Gleann Na Ndochais and Dystonia's Revenge won't be far away either.

Top Tip: BENNY'S WELL

Watch out for: SOLWAY LEGEND

ATR VERDICT: It will be interesting to see what the market makes of winning pointer Monbeg Charmer on his racecourse debut, but preference is for dual runner-up GULLY'S EDGE. Malcolm Jefferson's five-year-old has met with narrow defeat on both of his starts to date, and he sets a rock-solid standard as he bids to make it third-time lucky. Robbing The Prey has also made an encouraging start to his career and shouldn't be overlooked.
