ATR VERDICT: JEZZA bumped into a very well handicapped horse in Wolf Of Windlesham last month at Kempton and with that rival confirming his well-being in a decent juvenile handicap hurdle when winning at Sandown on Saturday, the son of Pentire has match fitness from the winter to put to good use here. While his best form recently has come on the all-weather, he is a course winner dating back to 2010 and shouldn't mind the conditions he faces here. Tarakkom could have benefited from a small break, while Madame Lafite is of interest returning to turf for the first time since contesting decent three-year-old maidens.

Top Tip: JEZZA

Watch out for: TARAKKOM
