TIMEFORM VIEW: Godolphin has taken this 4 times since 2009 and THUNDER SNOW, who proved himself at this level when runner-up in the Vintage at Goodwood, may represent a bit of value against Rivet, who was undeniably impressive at York but does take a jump in class here. Majeste also merits plenty of respect for another yard which has an excellent record in this race.

Jockey Colours: Dark blue, beige epaulets Timeform says: Improved from debut to get off the mark in 1m Kempton maiden last month, putting his experience to good use and coming home a comfortable winner. Opening mark fair so has to be considered. ★★☆☆☆ (Forecast 13.00)					Notes:
TIMEFORM VIEW: MATHS PRIZE is a well-made colt who has won his last 2 starts, but on both occasions he has left the impression there's more in the locker, and this more competitive contest could bring out the best in him. Harbour Master continued his progression at Sandown last time and he would be folly to ignore in his hat-trick bid, while Khalidi is a potential improver on nursery debut.

TIMEFORM VIEW: The patient approach is paying off with UP IN LIGHTS, who won with more in hand than the length-winning margin suggests last time, and she remains a handicapper to keep on the right side of. Notes:

Long Handicap: Turning The Table 8 - 2

TIMEFORM VIEW: TURNING THE TABLE has shaped as though in need of a sterner test both starts at 1½m this term, and this lightly-raced filly could prove a different proposition now having her stamina stretched. Bess of Hardwick is yet to fulfil her abundant potential, but it remains early days, while Renfrew Street may get a stronger pace to aim at.
