Long Handicap: Spillers Dream 9 - 9

ATR VERDICT: Conas Taoi was one of the success stories of last year, winning an incredible seven times for Paul Morgan and finishing second at this venue behind Cheltenham Festival winner Any Currency in April. He might want a longer trip and softer ground, so could be in danger of being outpaced on his seasonal reappearance. Cecil Corbett looked better than ever at Punchestown recently and Jamie Codd is worth his weight in gold in such events, but preference is for BROWNVILLE. Nigel Twiston-Davies traditionally has his string in fine order for this meeting and the local handler has landed this renewal three times since 2006. The seven-year-old remains unexposed for his age and is likely to be primed for this test.
