ATR VERDICT: RAYVIN BLACK couldn't handle the pace in a Grade 3 over hurdles at Ascot last month but he has long shaped like chasing would be his game and Oliver Sherwood's charge can make a winning debut in this discipline. A versatile type, the eight-year-old is likely to be aggressively ridden by Thomas Garner and he could have the pace to put this field to the sword if his jumping is solid enough. Zamdy Man landed a beginners' chase in April before a solid enough reappearance three weeks ago, while Gino Trail's second to Buveur D'Air 11 days ago was impressive and a repeat would put him on the premises.

Top Tip: RAYVIN BLACK

Watch out for: GINO TRAIL
