ATR VERDICT: Sir Billy Wright remains in good form and ran well to finish third despite a 4lb rise for an earlier win here last time out, while Dusky Dawn arrives in a buoyant mood after an impressive recent 1m success at Newcastle. A drop in distance might find out Alan Swinbank's charge and OUTER SPACE could be the one to beat. He was a narrow second to Lincoln entrant George Cinq last time out and a repeat of that would probably suffice. War Department could have been better drawn but should run his usual solid race.

Top Tip: OUTER SPACE

Watch out for: DUSKY DAWN
