ATR VERDICT: DOLOS was well fancied for the Fred Winter at the Festival when failing to figure, and let down supporters when trying to make amends at Ascot on his latest start, but this should be a much easier opportunity to return to the winner's enclosure and Paul Nicholls' juvenile can make amends. Gask Ridge represents Christian Williams' first Chepstow runner and he can give his former Ditchat boss most to think about, with The Groove the next best of this quartet.

Top Tip: DOLOS

Watch out for: GASK RIDGE
