ATR VERDICT: Sykes deserves respect as a former course and distance winner but his jumping has been erratic the last twice and he arrives with risks attached at present. The handicapper looks to be in charge of Pawn Star and it would be a surprise to see him land the odds off his current mark, and that could tee this contest up perfectly for MINELLACELEBRATION, who probably needed the run last time out when facing three talented novice chasers and a drop back to handicap company should see him in a better light.

Top Tip: MINELLACELEBRATION

Watch out for: PAWN STAR
