ATR VERDICT: David O'Meara's Lamloom looks the pick of those with racecourse experience having finished third behind a likeable Godolphin colt at Doncaster on the opening day of the turf season and that should stand him in good stead here. Roger Varian's Fujaira Bridge is also respected on the back of his Haydock effort behind Barney Roy last season but it may pay to concentrate on the newcomers in this contest. Charlie Appleby's Dubawi colt PILGRIM'S TREASURE could be the pick of those with the trainer beginning to hit his strides of late and he is closely followed by Richard Fahey's El Nino Sea who is by Sea The Stars and out of a daughter of Rock of Gibraltar.

Top Tip: PILGRIM'S TREASURE

Watch out for: LAMLOOM
