ATR VERDICT: Mick Easterby has started the turf Flat season in fine form and he is a rare visitor to the Berkshire track so Bowson Fred has to be respected if allowed an easy lead early on, while Soie D'leau is another northern raider who deserves respect after his impressive win in a valuable Doncaster handicap in October last year. The latter certainly has more scope for progress but might find DOUBLE UP too hot to handle. Roger Varian's gelding was expensive to follow last season but could get a nice toe into this contest under Silvestre De Sousa and fresh might be a good time to catch him.

Top Tip: DOUBLE UP

Watch out for: SOIE D'LEAU
