ATR VERDICT: The last 11 renewals of this event have gone to a horse either trained by Aidan O'Brien (six wins), John Oxx (three wins) or Demrot Weld (two wins) and that sequence could well continue today. The one to beat on all known form is clearly ORDER OF ST GEORGE, who was a beaten odds-on favourite in the Irish St Leger and the British Champions Long Distance Cup late last year. That said, in between those efforts the Ascot Gold Cup winner finished third to Found and Highland Reel in the Arc at Chantilly. Forgotten Rules is clearly not the horse he once promised to be but he is more than capable of going well at this level. However, he has plenty of ground to find with Torcedor based on their meeting at Leopardstown earlier in the month. Red Stars and Twilight Payment are other notable participants.

Top Tip: ORDER OF ST GEORGE
Watch out for: TORCEDOR
