ATR VERDICT: SAINT EQUIANO was expected to run a lot better than he did on debut at Carlisle last June, according to the market, but after an 86-day break he left what was a moderate first run well behind at Ayr. A close second on that occasion, he took another step forward and opened his account at the third time of asking at the Scottish track, shaping as though he'd make into a nice three-year-old. He could be well treated on his seasonal/handicap bow and gets the verdict ahead of Sharp Defence and Black Isle Boy.

Top Tip: SAINT EQUIANO

Watch out for: SHARP DEFENCE
