ATR VERDICT: Plenty of the protagonists here are changing tact having come up short in their early season targets, with LARCHMONT LAD the one to watch, now dropping back to seven furlongs having finished towards the rear in the 2000 Guineas last time. Seven Heavens has yo-yo'd between distances lately and he steps back up in trip now with plenty of question marks surrounding both his temperament and ability, while Taamol didn't appear to stay at Newcastle and the form of that contest was let down in the Dante this week. Of the remainder, Desert Frost looked like a horse with potential when claiming a Doncaster maiden on his debut.

Top Tip: LARCHMONT LAD

Watch out for: DESERT FROST
