ATR VERDICT: Le Brivido lost his unbeaten record when runner-up in the French 2000 Guineas behind Brametot and the return to 7f gives him leading claims to return to winning form along with Daban, who performed with plenty of credit in the 1000 Guineas at Newmarket when third to Winter despite being drawn on the outside and not getting much cover in the early stages. Another dropping down to 7f is DREAM CASTLE, fifth in the 2000 Guineas behind Churchill, and the son of Frankel created arguably one of the biggest impressions this season when powering clear on the bridle in the Greenham, only to get outstayed by Barney Roy. Josephine Gordon looks a notable booking as she bids to become the second female jockey to ride a winner at the Royal meeting. Winning Ways couldn't have won any easier on his latest start over C&D in a handicap and looked ready for a step up in class, while of those at bigger prices, Escobar and Muhtasim both make some appeal, especially the latter who has looked to be crying out for a step up to 7f.

Top Tip: DREAM CASTLE
Watch out for: LE BRIVIDO
