ATR VERDICT: The form of the win of Mutanaaseq at Doncaster received a major boost when his victim, Bengali Boys, went on to land the Weatherbys Super Sprint. He may well maintain his unbeaten record but GOLD TOWN ran well here last time in a highly competitive nursery and had previously not been disgraced in Listed grade. He is well worth another chance here. Dragons Tail is proving a solid juvenile for the Tom Dascombe team and should run his race again, while Fleeting Freedom cannot be ignored on the back of a steadily progressive profile.
