ATR VERDICT: Tim Easterby has a strong hand here with three runners, and perhaps the most interesting of them is VIVE LA DIFFERENCE. The three-year-old made a pleasing start to life in the UK after a gelding operation and five month absence at Catterick last time, finishing second in a similar sort of contest. The former Andre Fabre-trained son of Holy Roman Emperor should have come on for that, and could account for Envisaging, who drops in class for James Fanshawe, and Dandys Denouement, who has shown enough ability to land a contest of this nature in his last couple of starts.

Top Tip: VIVE LA DIFFERENCE (9)

Watch out for: ENVISAGING (4)
