ATR VERDICT: Paul Nicholls and Sean Bowen teamed up to take this prize 12 months ago with the ill-fated Arpege D'alene and they are represented this time by COASTAL TIEP, who jumped well when displaying his strong stamina to win on chase debut at Exeter last month. The son of Coastal Path looked as though he would strip fitter for the outing and the reapplication of cheekpieces will suit on this tighter track. Geordie Des Champs showed a good level of form over timber and is expected to make a better chaser, while Clondaw Cian has gone well fresh in the past having won at Cheltenham last November and he is preferred in the minor honours to Captain Chaos.

Top Tip: COASTAL TIEP (1)

Watch out for: GEORDIE DES CHAMPS (4)
