ATR VERDICT: Show On The Road and Mont Des Avaloirs have both demonstrated ability in bumpers and it would come as no surprise to see either figure for their powerful stables on their hurdles debuts. However, there are a couple here with strong hurdles form already in the book, namely Kilbricken Storm, who was debuting for Colin Tizzard when third in a novice hurdle (behind smart bumper performer Lalor) at Exeter last month, and IF THE CAP FITS. Harry Fry's charge was fourth in the Grade 2 bumper at Aintree last term (won by Lalor) and produced an exciting performance when jumping his rivals into the ground from the front at Exeter last month. He appears capable of following up under a penalty with that experience now under his belt.
