Long Handicap: Squirrelheed 7 - 6

ATR VERDICT: Photonics showed plenty of promise when second over this course and distance on debut and was subsequently well backed for a competitive event at York subsequently. Things didn't go to plan that day and he again faltered on his return to the Gosforth synthetics last time so now has plenty of questions to answer. Similar sentiments apply to Sunbreak who was disappointing when bidding for the hat-trick last time, though he looks much more suited to an all-weather surface. A chance is taken on James Tate's SHARP REMINDER, who shaped like a mile would suit when second here over 7f and there was plenty of encouragement to take from his first effort at the distance at Kempton last time. The first-time blinkered Bold Reason is another who must be considered from the head of the handicap.

Top Tip: SHARP REMINDER (6)

Watch out for: SUNBREAK (3)
