ATR VERDICT: Benechenko has proved frustrating to follow so far over hurdles and arrives with a bit to prove after finishing second when heavily backed in a weaker race at Bangor last time out. The booking of Bryony Frost takes the eye, but preference here is for RHAEGAR. Six lengths behind the progressive White Moon last month, the six-year-old stayed on well and looks poised to relish this step up in trip. Natter Jack Croak could prove good enough for third.

Top Tip: RHAEGAR (9)

Watch out for: BENECHENKO (2)
