ATR VERDICT: Dis Donc is the pick of those with hurdles experience but preference is for DORTMUND PARK, who made a big impression when winning two French bumpers earlier in the year. The four-year-old has been purchased by these connections for 230,000 euros and he could be an above-average performer. Speak Easy is another expensive purchase having cost 220,000 pounds following his point-to-point win, while Sidetracked cost 150,000 euros as a store and is a half-brother to Cue Card.

Top Tip: DORTMUND PARK (3)
Watch out for: SPEAK EASY (14)
