ATR VERDICT: TOMBSTONE lost little in defeat when touched off by half a length behind Woodlands Opera at Punchestown last month as the Jessica Harrington-trained winner brought much more fencing experience to the table. A repeat performance from the selection may well suffice this afternoon. His main danger, once again, may be from the Harrington stable, as Jett produced a commanding performance when striking at Thurles nine days ago. Cheiliuradh appears up against it on these terms while Inis Meain may be better over further.

Top Tip: TOMBSTONE (3)

Watch out for: JETT (2)
