ATR VERDICT: LOOK MY WAY has an official rating of 90 on the Flat and he bumped into another useful recruit when finishing second on his hurdles debut last month. That form is clearly the best on offer and it will be disappointing if the son of Pour Moi were to be beaten. The main threat is likely to be Sommervieu, who showed ability in his native France and he was out of his depth in a Grade 2 on his debut for these connections. Others to consider are Etoo Sport and Lord County.

Top Tip: LOOK MY WAY (3)
Watch out for: SOMMERVIEU (6)

ATR VERDICT: Jet Set edges out Spider's Bite and The Dellercheckout to be the pick of those with hurdling experience based on her second-placed finish at Doncaster. That said, the preference is for PECULIAR PLACES, who cost connections 100,000 pounds back in June following his run in a Market Rasen bumper. The son of Presenting then won at Hereford in November and looks sure to be suited by this kind of test. Indian Hawk bolted up in a British point-to-point last May and he was subsequently purchased for 110,000 pounds.

Top Tip: PECULIAR PLACES (10)
Watch out for: INDIAN HAWK (6)

ATR VERDICT: COPAIN DE CLASSE shaped with plenty of encouragement when third on chase debut at Ascot behind the progressive Benatar and remains on the same handicap mark here with conditions to suit. Exitas looks to be in the grip of the handicapper but is very consistent and should run his usual solid race, while Tree Of Liberty is an interesting runner for Kerry Lee making his chase debut having possessed some solid form over timber.

ATR VERDICT: ELLENS WAY was an easy winner on her latest outing at Fontwell just eight days ago and connections have shrewdly taken the option of coming out under a penalty as she would be rated 5lb higher if running off her new rating. Braventara returns to 3m for her handicap debut and looks capable of improvement off her mark, while Fille Des Champs can prove better than what she showed last time at Chepstow.

ATR VERDICT: HEDGEINATOR was brave in defeat when bumping into Sandown specialist Pete The Feat at the Esher track last month but he can make amends here with the talented James Bowen back in the saddle and running from the same mark. It's A Steal was beaten a long way at Taunton but is still nicely treated, while the main opposition may be provided by Jack Snipe, who was running a blinder before he unseated Robert Hawker at Plumpton last month.

Top Tip: HEDGEINATOR (1)
Watch out for: JACK SNIPE (3)

ATR VERDICT: Kim Bailey has a 50% strike-rate in this sphere at this venue over the past five years and his pair Sea Story and Lady Of The Night must be considered, especially the former who unseated her rider in unfortunate circumstances on her racecourse bow over track and trip last month. However, Nicky Henderson often starts off his highly thought of youngsters at this course and his mare SIMONIA can land the spoils. A half-sister to both Simonsig and Drumcliff, the daughter of Yeats could have a bright future ahead of her. Angel Moon can't be ruled out for the in-form Fergal O'Brien, while Cheeky Chica didn't let anyone down when second on her debut at Huntingdon and should be better for it.

Top Tip: SIMONIA (9)

Watch out for: SEA STORY (8)
