ATR VERDICT: This is not the strongest of maiden hurdles and it is an ideal opportunity for the dual bumper winner HEARTASIA to earn her first victory over obstacles. The daughter of Danehill Dancer finished third in a similar event over C&D in November and that performance suggested that she would improve for the hurdling experience. Character Onesie could make the frame if he can complete the course, which he failed to do last time out. Chookie Royale and Emell were both talented Flat performers, while it is too soon to be writing off Arizona Bound after one poor run in September.

Top Tip: HEARTASIA (11)

Watch out for: CHARACTER ONESIE (3)

Long Handicap: Boy's On Tour 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: MULLAGHMURPHY BLUE could hardly have won any easier over C&D last month and that was his second win at this track this season. A 10lb rise in the ratings is unlikely to be enough to stop him from going extremely well once again. It was too soon to know how Martiloo would have gone when she unseated rider at Ayr last time but the mare had been in great form prior to that. Middlebrow is another who failed to make the finish on his last appearance but is a player based on previous efforts.

Top Tip: MULLAGHMURPHY BLUE (3)

ATR VERDICT: Micky Hammond has enjoyed a fruitful spell recently with the yard in great form and RHYTHM OF SOUND bids to land the hat-trick as he returns to hurdles after two chase successes at Leicester and Sedgefield. Hey Bob was a winner at Southwell on his latest start and warrants plenty of respect, while others to consider include Mitcd and Sleep In First, who both look to have each-way claims.

ATR VERDICT: RANDY PIKE was an easy winner on his handicap debut at Market Rasen when finally showing some of the promise which had seen him sent off at cramped odds for two bumpers earlier on in his career. He is quickly turned out under a penalty and is expected to defy it. Lady London has been running consistently well over course and distance recently and can land a blow along with Justatenner, who was close up behind the aforementioned mare here last month.

Long Handicap: Trust Thomas 9 - 12

ATR VERDICT: UT MAJEUR AULMES has started this season in fine form and the often tricky to catch right performer has proved to be much more consistent. A repeat of the level he produced when defeated just a neck at Aintree last time can see him take this and provide Victor Dartnall with a welcome winner. Mixboy has been putting in some solid performances on the Flat, winning twice in the Autumn, and can get involved if transferring that back over fences, while Chain Of Beacons and Pain Au Chocolat are others capable of getting in the mix.

ATR VERDICT: Borders handler Donald Whillans saw his mare PAPER PROMISE finish second at Kelso on her racecourse debut and the switch to a flatter track here could see her get off the mark this time around. Detonate has the experience of a run in France and cost a hefty amount at the sales, while Blue Baton is related to a bumper winner and could be the best of the racecourse debutants.
