ATR VERDICT: A 1m7f winner in Ireland, HIGH KICKER kept on at the same pace in the finish when second over 1m4f at Dundalk last time and is expected to improve for this stiffer test now stepped back up in trip. Shine Baby Shine was touched off by a neck over the extended 2m at Newcastle in September and is expected to contest the minor money along with General Allenby, who is only 3lb higher than when scoring over 2m at Catterick in October.

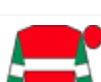

Top Tip: HIGH KICKER (2)

ATR VERDICT: Prerogative has finished runner-up on his last three runs on the level and is seemingly vulnerable for win purposes. 81-rated David Simcock representative New World Power is another who has spurned plenty of opportunities, so perhaps it might be worth taking a chance on BOUNDERBY, a former Godolphin representative who has demonstrated ability for Andre Fabre in France and now debuts for a new stable.

Top Tip: BOUNDERBY (7)

Watch out for: NEW WORLD POWER (4)

ATR VERDICT: KOMMANDER KIRKUP lines up here in search of a hat-trick following a couple of comfortable course triumphs and a 3lb rise in the weights for his latest success might not be enough to halt him. Run With Pride has an all-weather success at Kempton to his name and is shortlisted, but the one feared most is Tellovoi, who kept on for third at Chelmsford last time out and has been dropped 2lb as a result.

ATR VERDICT: JACK THE TRUTH has improved with every start to date and the son of Dandy Man may be underestimated by an opening mark of 67 based on his maiden win here last month. Coiste Bodhar is the obvious main danger also having won at this track on his most recent appearance. The others are hard to recommend but Culloden is marginally the pick of that pair.

ATR VERDICT: THE GREAT WALL beat nothing when he won a maiden here last week but he could hardly have done it any easier and it proves that he can handle this surface. Captain Lars, Lady Perignon and Zaeem are other in-form participants who merit respect but the main threat to the selection could prove to be Bold Spirit. The seven-year-old's form figures at this track read 2412 and he remains on a workable mark.

ATR VERDICT: TATLISU was a battling winner of a Wolverhampton claimer last time and is a big player here if Richard Fahey's gelding proves just as effective up in trip to a mile. Course and distance winner Pearl Nation has to be respected representing the potent all-weather combination of Mick Appleby and Luke Morris, while Vivat Rex is another with likeable track and trip form who is expected to get involved.

ATR VERDICT: PRINCESS WAY scored with something up her sleeve over course and distance last month and David Evans' filly is fancied to go close once again off just 5lb higher. Canadian Royal is a consistent alternative to consider, while Meandmyshadow and Mr Potter are others to note, especially the latter who is tried in first-time cheekpieces and has a 7lb claimer doing the steering.

Top Tip: PRINCESS WAY (10)

Watch out for: MEANDMYSHADOW (3)
