ATR VERDICT: Nicky Henderson has won the last two renewals of this and relies on Josses Hill this time around, who despite having question marks against his jumping, is a worthy Seven Barrows representative. God's Own is a Grade One winner and it is interesting he hasn't been seen since October when down the field at Aintree when in clear need of the run. His handler's horses are in much better form now and he has to be considered receiving weight here. However, WAITING PATIENTLY is unbeaten over fences and appears a graded winner in waiting. A delicate horse, he has been cautiously handled by the wise Malcolm Jefferson and his foot sure jumping can see the easy travelling son of Flemensfirth further enhance his reputation here.

Top Tip: WAITING PATIENTLY (4)

Watch out for: GOD'S OWN (6)
