ATR VERDICT: The Last Bridge is clearly a lot better than showing at Southwell and he can be given another chance on his return from a 205-day break, while Moorstown wouldn't be without a chance if finding top gear either. Preference, however, is for Micky Hammond's INCHCOLM. His second at Wetherby represents the best last-time-out form on offer and the addition of a first-time tongue-tie could potentially bring about further improvement.

Top Tip: INCHCOLM (3)

Watch out for: THE LAST BRIDGE (2)
