ATR VERDICT: Tommy Rapper finally got off the mark when beating Book Of Gold in a maiden hurdle at Doncaster last month but he wouldn't be one to completely rely on having been beaten the time before when also an odds-on favourite over this C&D. Preference, therefore, goes to a stable companion of the horse Dan Skelton's gelding beat last time in the shape of SEASTON SPIRIT. The son of Kayf Tara won well on hurdles debut at Fontwell when shaping as though a step up in trip and a stiffer track would both bring about improvement. Coeur Pensif looks best of the remainder having placed behind Pauls Hill and the aforementioned Tommy Rapper here in December.

Top Tip: SEASTON SPIRIT (1)

Watch out for: TOMMY RAPPER (2)
