ATR VERDICT: SHAUGHNESSY bumped into a promising rival when second on debut, and Oliver Sherwood's 105,000-euro purchase for loyal owner Tim Syder could be capable of going one better here with the form of that Huntingdon bumper looking rock solid. Paul Nicholls' newcomer Southfield Torr is a half-brother to multiple winners Southfield Theatre, Southfield Vic and Southfield Royale and all three of those landed bumpers in their time with the Ditchheat handler. The Flying Sofa finished third on debut in a red-hot Ascot contest before flopping last time and could be capable of bouncing back here, while L'chamise has been pitched into two tough contests to open her career and should be capable of plenty more.

Top Tip: SHAUGHNESSY (2)

Watch out for: SOUTHFIELD TORR (3)
