ATR VERDICT: Nicky Henderson has landed this prize twice in the last eight years with Spirit River and Whisper and the latter's colours are on show again here with market protagonist William Henry, who wears first-time cheekpieces and has course-winning form, but may not necessarily enjoy conditions. The leading-most trainer in terms of Cheltenham winners also runs Burbank, who was fourth in the Ballymore here last year, and Stowaway Magic, but the eye is drawn to FIXE LE KAP. Beaten at odds-on on his chasing debut before switching to hurdles last time for a quick spin, the six-year-old remains unexposed in this sphere and is a three-time winner with the word 'soft' appearing in the going description. Topofthegame won a hot Sandown handicap last time while Le Breuil has long been held in high regard by Ben Pauling and looks well handicapped.

Top Tip: FIXE LE KAP (12)

Watch out for: LE BREUIL (16)
