ATR VERDICT: This is not a race to get carried away with but the marginal preference is for GLOBAL DOMINATION, who did run well to finish second over an extended 2m7f here in January. Skint is not a regular winner these days but his effort last time out suggests that the veteran can make the frame today. Vote Of Confidence has to be noted having had a wind operation prior to his debut for Dan Skelton today.

Top Tip: GLOBAL DOMINATION (5)
Watch out for: SKINT (3)
