ATR VERDICT: Willie Mullins has won four of the last six runnings of this event and he appears to have two solid chances this time around. Invitation Only is the obvious one with Grade 1-placed form under his belt and having Ruby Walsh aboard, but at the forecast prices, KEMBOY might be worth chancing. Paul Townend's mount ran a cracker when fifth, the first of the Irish home, in last season's Ballymore and he has arguably progressed to another level since switching to fences, recording solid win and placed efforts at Fairyhouse. He ticks the ground, trip and track boxes and should give his supporters a good run for their money. Modus wasn't beaten far in the Coral Cup 12 months ago and is likely to arrive on the scene travelling well under Barry Geraghty, while Terrefort, Benatar, Snow Falcon and Shattered Love, the only mare in the line-up, add further spice to the race.

Top Tip: KEMBOY (5)

Watch out for: INVITATION ONLY (4)
