ATR VERDICT: Unowhatimeanharry, third in this 12 months ago (with Lil Rockerfeller second), suffered a surprise defeat at the hands of Beer Goggles in the Long Distance Hurdle and was then put in his place by Sam Spinner when third in the Long Walk, a race in which L'Ami Serge split the pair in second. That result saw the Jedd O'Keeffe-trained winner take over at the head of the ante-post market for this contest, though he was later usurped by Supasundae after the latter beat Faugheen in the Irish Champion Hurdle over a trip considered short of his optimum. Jessica Harrington's charge was, however, held by YANWORTH over 3m at Aintree last term, and with testing ground known to suit the selection, who won in breathtaking fashion on slow ground here when tuning up for the 2016 Neptune, Alan King's charge is one to consider closely now switching back from a spell chasing. Last year's Albert Bartlett winner Penhill, who has been absent since April, would be one to consider closely if attracting market support.

Top Tip: YANWORTH (13)

Watch out for: SUPASUNDAE (8)
