Long Handicap: Krugermac 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: BLEU ET ROUGE's chasing campaign may have been one of disappointment last term but he will have gone into notebooks aplenty for his Betfair Hurdle second behind Kalashnikov last time. The winner boosted the form by running a big race in defeat when second in the Supreme on Tuesday and, with slow ground known to suit, he could remain competitive despite an 8lb rise. Spiritofthegames was third behind the selection at Newbury and has place possibilities, though bigger dangers may be unexposed Grade 3 winner Sandsend, Duca De Thaix, who is fitted with a first-time tongue-tie and commands respect under Jack Kennedy, and Whiskey Sour, a Grade 1 winner at Leopardstown who lost little in defeat when fourth behind Samcro latest. Drying ground would bring last year's Fred Winter winner Flying Tiger as well as Chesterfield and Ivanovich Gorbатов into the equation. Chesterfield is nicely treated on his victory in last year's Scottish Champion Hurdle while the latter, the 2016 Triumph winner, has slipped to a workable mark too.

Top Tip: BLEU ET ROUGE (1)
Watch out for: SANDSEND (8)
